

VARDHAMAN COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING
DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING
REPORT ON
ONLINE WEBINAR ON "ROLE OF SCOPUS IN RESEARCH"

Date: 21st AUG 2021

Time: 11am

No. of participants: 40

Event Description:

Department of Computer Science & Engineering organized online Webinar on "ROLE OF SCOPUS IN RESEARCH" on 21st Aug 2021 at 11:00AM. Dr.Sachi Nandan Mohanty, introduced Prof. Vijaya Reddy, Solutions Sales Manager, Research Intelligence Elsevier, South Asia, as a speaker. Mr.Vijaya delivered how to search Scopus indexing with authors search and through Institution affiliation search with demonstration, his talk really appreciated. Fifty-five participants were present during the session including faculty members and Research scholar.

Finally end with vote of Thanks by Head of the Department.

About Speaker:

Vijay Reddy is with Elsevier's Research Management team since July 2014 as Solution Manager (South Asia). He is an Engineer with master's in management. Vijay Reddy, as a mentor was part of the prestigious project - "Improving Research output and quality" at state universities – Government of Andhra Pradesh, Higher education department's initiative. Project focuses on – 1. benchmark research output and quality 2. enable R&D cells at major state universities adopt best practices 3. build local teams and metrics to track and measure and track research In his career he worked on various consulting projects catering to requirements of Government, Academic Institutions & Corporates Prior joining Elsevier Vijay worked at GS1 a global standards body. He contributed in developing a National Hospital Registry for India which provided visibility and transparency to treatment costs for validating insurance claims submitted by beneficiaries. It enables greater analytical and reporting to drive decision making by various stakeholders in the healthcare insurance industry. He also worked for NIIT LIMITED, Intense technologies. He lives in Hyderabad.